Unlicensed products should not be shipped across state lines and will be tagged with the following green tag. CBB's FDA license (983) will not appear on the product label:

If you are asked to ship products to a hospital across state lines, please do not select a product that has this tag attached and/or lacks CBB's FDA license on the label.

If you are a hospital in NY that receives one of these products, please quarantine and contact CBB immediately.
